

Recording EDGE "Rules of the Road"

Recording EDGE works passionately to provide a safe, fun and creative audio recording experience. Fun and creativity are defined by wildly varying definitions, so, in order to continue providing quality audio recording at extremely low rates, ground rules must be established.

- 1) Any damage to any Recording Edge equipment, including anything loaned to Recording EDGE, and/or borrowed equipment in the studio at the time the damage is incurred, and/or any damage incurred to the Recording EDGE building and/or facilities located at 615 East Cameron Bridge Road, Bozeman, MT 59718 is the sole responsibility of the person(s) recording (Money Manager) or group with checking account and/or credit card.
- 2) Cleaning and repairs will be invoiced at cost plus any resulting studio down time that is a direct result from said damage or cleaning.
- 3) Food and Beverages are allowed in the studio and control room.
 - 3a) Refer to items 1) and 2) above when consuming food and beverages in the Recording EDGE studio and/or control room and/or building and/or facilities.
- 4) Personal equipment is the sole responsibility of the personal equipment owner(s) and will not hold Recording EDGE liable for any damage.
- 5) Personal injury is not the responsibility of Recording EDGE, nor is Recording EDGE to be held liable for personal injury
- 6) Smoking is not allowed in the Recording EDGE facility at any time.
- 7) Recording EDGE reserves the right to terminate any arrangement or agreement at will. The client (you) may terminate any recording projects or sessions at will, however, no-shows for scheduled sessions will be charged a $70 cancellation fee without at least a 24-hour notice.
- 8) Copyright permissions are the sole responsibility of the client not Recording EDGE.
- 9) Recording EDGE will not be held liable for equipment failures, data loss or any other acts of God. Further more, Recording EDGE will not be held liable for scheduling issues that result from same. Purchasing data backup devise(s) is strongly encouraged and is highly recommended.
- 10) Bookings are scheduled on a first come, first served basis.
